

Course Code : ENCM 41592
Title : Professional Placement
Pre-requisite : All level III ENCM course units
Co-requisite : None
Status : Compulsory, Practical

Learning outcomes:

After completion of the course unit, the student will be able to demonstrate;

- ✓ knowledge on the basic management procedures in a selected industry / institution,
- ✓ experience in selected functioning area of the industry / institution, and
- ✓ generic skills needed to work effectively in a professional working environment.

Course content:

The student will be placed in a selected industry/ institution where practical applications of environmental conservation and management are applied, and undertakes training to obtain experience at the professional working environment. It is intended that the student develops inter-personal and self-management skills to adapt to a professional working environment while gaining experience on selected functioning aspects of the industry/institute during the training period.

Method of teaching and learning:

Training under the supervision and guidance of a competent personnel in an industry or institution related to environmental conservation and management.

Assessment:

Evaluation of the progress report submitted by the trainer and the student’s technical report and oral presentation on student’s experience at the work place.

Assessment Strategy: Continuous assessment and end of semester examination. Percentage given for each sub component indicates the percent contribution to the final marks.
Continuous Assessment -	Final Assessment 100 %
	Technical report evaluation 60	Trainer evaluation 20	Oral presentation and viva-voce examination 20

Recommended reading:

Reading and reference materials will be recommended/ provided by the relevant industry /institute where necessary.