

Semester	5 and 6
Course Code:	ENCM 43722
Course Name:	Literature Review and Seminar on Special Topics in Environmental Management
Credit Value:	2
Status	Compulsory for BSc Honours in ENCM degree
Pre-requisite	ENCM 22791
Co-requisite	None
Hourly Breakdown	Theory	Practical	Independent Learning
	-	-	100
Intended Learning Outcomes:
After completion of this course unit, the student will be able to;
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. collect information pertaining to an assigned topic in Environmental Management using multiple reference sources, 2. demonstrate competency in logically presenting accurate and relevant subject matter on an assigned topic in Environmental Management in a form of a literature review, and 3. present the contents of the literature review effectively in a form of a seminar to academic audience.
Course Content:
Logical preparation of a literature review on an assigned topic related to Environmental Management addressing the scope of the topic based on relevant references (preferably more recent) to the topic. Logical development of the subject matter related to the assigned topic. Conclusion/summary integrating major points presented in the literature review. Effective presentation of the contents in the literature review in a form of a seminar to academic audience.
Teaching /Learning Methods:
Self-studies including relevant literature surveys using library and online resources.
Assessment Strategy:
End of semester assessment of the literature review report and seminar. Percentage given for each sub-component indicates the percent contribution to the final marks.
Continuous Assessment	Final Assessment
-	100%
-	Literature review report	Seminar	Other
-	60	40	-
Recommended Readings:
Peer reviewed scholarly literature relevant to the assigned topic.			